ORDER

This case was filed as a discrimination action. Later, Plaintiff added claims for violation of her right to Due Process and neglect of duty. Plaintiff is proceeding pro se. The matter is before the Court for review of the Report and Recommendation (Report) of the United States Magistrate Judge suggesting that Defendant's motion for summary judgment be granted. The Report was made in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636 and Local Civil Rule 73.02 for the District of South Carolina.

The Magistrate Judge makes only a recommendation to this Court. The recommendation has no presumptive weight. The responsibility to make a final determination remains with the Court. Mathews v. Weber, 423 U.S. 261, 270 (1976). The Court is charged with making a de novo determination of those portions of the Report to which specific objection is made, and the Court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the recommendation of the Magistrate Judge or recommit the matter with instructions. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1).

The Magistrate Judge filed the Report on August 4, 2008, and the Clerk of Court filed Plaintiff's objections to the Report on August 14, 2008. The Court has exhaustively reviewed Plaintiff's voluminous submission, but finds the arguments contained therein to be without merit. Therefore, for the reasons set forth in the Magistrate Judge's comprehensive and well-reasoned Report, the Court will grant Defendant's motion for summary judgment.

After a thorough review of the Report and the record in this case pursuant to the standard set forth above, the Court overrules Plaintiff's objections, adopts the Report, and incorporates it herein. Therefore, it is the judgment of this Court that Defendant's motion for summary judgment be GRANTED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Signed this 15th day of August, 2008, in Spartanburg, South Carolina.
